Time: 10:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

New location!

St. Peter Catholic Church

5001 N. Sherman Ave, Madison, WI 53562

(south of Cherokee Marsh Conservation Park)

Free Admission and Parking • Wheelchair Accessible • Credit cards accepted

Our Spring Festival offers traditional Polish bakery/foods for purchase, including pączki, poppy seed rolls, kołaczki, chruściki, babkas, Polish breads, kiełbasa, and pierogi. Also featuring unique amber jewelry, Bolesławiec pottery, and traditional Easter items (e.g. decorated eggs, Easter palms, sugar lambs), as well as wianki (floral head wreaths), toys, imported Polish goods, a big selection of books, craft demonstrations and much more.

While listening to Polish music, treat yourself to a tasty lunch of pierogi, kiełbasa, sauerkraut, and rye bread. Take-out will be available.

This event is sponsored by the Polish Heritage Club, an all-volunteer organization.

Proceeds from this event support scholarships, educational programs, and cultural events.
