

Constitution

May 3, 1791

Day

The 1791 Constitution Celebrated through Words, Music and Imagery

Monday May 2, 2022
6:00 P.M.

Polish Center of Wisconsin- Veterans Room
(No Cost and Open to The Public)

The 1791 Constitution Celebrated through Words, Music and Imagery

With David R. Zepecki, Donald Pienkos- Prof. Emeritus (Political Science) UW-Milwaukee
and Francis T. Wasielewski

Poland's great Constitution of May 3, 1791 will be celebrated through words, music and imagery at the Polish Center in Franklin, Wisconsin. All are invited to this free event and to a wine and cheese social - all sponsored by the Milwaukee Society of the Polish National Alliance in cooperation with the Polish Center of Wisconsin and with the support of the Wisconsin Polish American Congress. Highlights of the program that begins at 7 p.m. will be a performance of the music of Frydryk Chopin by Pianist Francis T. Wasielewski and the Premier showing of a set of posters created by the Polish Center that tell the story of the Constitution and in a very special way.

6941 S. 68th St., Franklin, WI 53132-8237 (414) 529-2140
www.polishcenterofwisconsin.org